Dear Admiral Turner:

The Education Council invites your agency to participate in the Horace Hart/Education Council Award program. The award is presented to government employees for distinguished public service in the field of printing and publishing.

The Horace Hart/Education Council Award may be made to an employee of the local, state, or federal governmental agency. We would welcome a nomination from your department. Selections are based on any one or more points suggested in the enclosed brochure. In addition to the nominating letter, it is extremely important to enclose supporting evidence and/or examples of accomplishments so that the Screening Committee can judge your candidate's contributions to the industry.

You may renominate a candidate. When this is done, all supporting materials and information should be brought up-to-date. Anyone who has not previously received the award is eligible.

Please remember that examples of accomplishments are extremely important in the final selection. Your nomination for the Horace Hart/Education Council Award is due in the Education Council office by February 12, 1980.

Sincerely,

Lowell Dummer
